

Celtic Overdrive that gets right into your feet.

Keltikon, with its energetic Celtic Rock & Folk Punk, has quickly become one of the most active "Irish" rock bands in Switzerland, playing over 150 concerts since 2012, here and abroad.

2018 the band shared once again the stage with international acts such as Fiddlers Green and the Rumjacks. On their first tour of Ireland the band was welcomed with open arms and overwhelmed with positive feedback. As a result of further interest from a number of event organizers, the second tour is already being planned.

These skilled musicians with decades of experience, not only of Scottish and Irish traditional music, weave Rock, Ska, Neo-Folk and Baltic elements together to create an individual, dynamic rock concept.

Experience shows that Keltikon's original songs don't have play second fiddle to covers when they're playing live. Sometimes they are somber and melancholic, but mostly full of exuberant energy and just a bit of barefaced cheek.

Folky, rock stomping, fast as lightning and with a handful of ballads thrown in, the band plays tribute to old bards as well as Flogging Molly or the Pogues. The repertoire is rounded off with some well-loved songs such as "Whisky in the Jar" in the "Dirty Old Town" "On the Rocky Road to Dublin". So let's get the party started! Sláinte
